What are Alternatives to Incarceration Services?

ComCor developed its Alternatives to Incarceration program in response to the need for reliable, low cost accountability and substance abuse monitoring for lower risk offenders. These services are designed to provide the structure necessary to keep these types of offenders out of the prison and/or jail system while maintaining a high level of community safety. The services that ComCor is offering include:

- SleepTime™
- PassPoint®
- State Day Reporting
- Electronic Monitoring:
 - Home Detention
 - GPS Tracking
 - Voice Verification
 - The Sobriator
- Standard urinalysis testing
- Standard breathalyzer testing
- Antabuse monitoring

ComCor can combine any of the above services to fit your program-

Solutions For Judges

- Judges have the ability to specify program parameters or to use established programs
- Prompt violation notifications followed by appropriate sanctions
- No public tax dollars are used to pay for programming

Solutions For Supervising Officers

- Supervising officers can create unique programs for offenders to be used as intermediate sanctions or for increased monitoring
- Simple referral process
- Supervision solutions when confronted with the reality of limited bedspace

Solutions For Attorneys

- Professional staff help you to develop appropriate sentencing alternatives for complex cases
- Bi-lingual staff available
- Ability to effectively manage clients living in remote locations

Solutions For Offenders

- Affordable jail alternatives offer offenders the ability to keep their jobs while serving their sentence in the community
- Families can remain intact reducing the need for social services
- Alternative sentencing allows offenders to participate in community treatment programs
